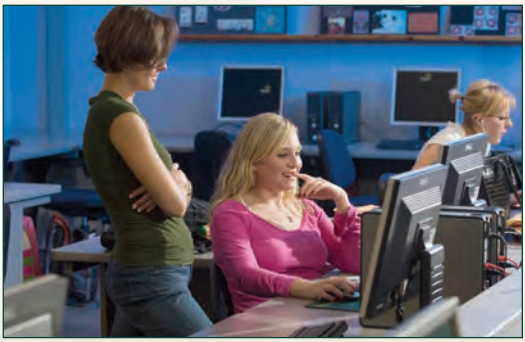
As one of the nation's leading research universities, Colorado State provides an excellent and accessible education, conducts research that transforms our world, and leads outreach programs that support economic vitality and improve the quality of life for people worldwide.

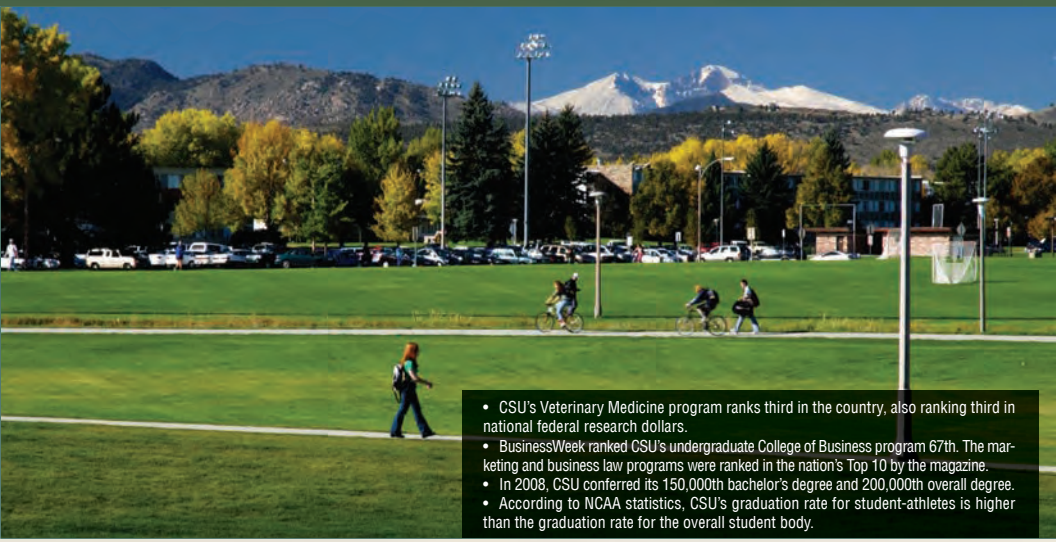
As Colorado's land-grant university, Colorado State was founded in 1870 to fulfill the vision of President Abraham Lincoln and others—to create access and opportunity for people in Colorado and around the world who can benefit from hands-on, engaged learning.

With more than 150 programs of study and 78 undergraduate degree programs in eight colleges—and a faculty-to-student ratio of 16.5:1—students have access to a wealth of educational possibilities. Colorado State leads the world in disciplines such as human and animal health, clean energy and the environment, global and sustainable business, engineering, and climate research. Along with outstanding programs in the liberal and performing arts, humanities and social sciences, Colorado State offers some of the top professional programs in the country in construction management, occupational therapy, psychology, communications and agriculture—and is home to the top-ranked public business school in the state.



Challenging academic programs and world-changing research are hallmarks of Colorado State, and it is our special commitment to service, outreach, and transforming our world through innovation that sets this university apart. Even more important, CSU's character is reflected in the quality of our students and graduates, who embody the university's mission of service and go on to make a significant impact on our world when they graduate.

We invite you to learn more about Colorado State, a university with vision, character and a commitment to excellence.



- CSU's Veterinary Medicine program ranks third in the country, also ranking third in national federal research dollars.
- BusinessWeek ranked CSU's undergraduate College of Business program 67th. The marketing and business law programs were ranked in the nation's Top 10 by the magazine.
- In 2008, CSU conferred its 150,000th bachelor's degree and 200,000th overall degree.
- According to NCAA statistics, CSU's graduation rate for student-athletes is higher than the graduation rate for the overall student body.

Colorado State University takes very seriously its role in educating student-athletes. Excellence is expected on the field and in the classroom.

The most recent NCAA academic statistics reveal that Colorado State leads the Mountain West Conference in graduation rate for student-athletes at 66 percent – well ahead of the conference's overall student-athlete graduation rate of 57 percent. In football, Colorado State is second in the MW, graduating 68 percent of its student-athletes – again, well ahead of the conference average of 49 percent. Additionally, CSU student-athletes graduate at a higher percentage than the general student body.

Colorado State, however, is not resting on its reputation for graduating its student-athletes. The state-of-the-art Anderson Academic Center, which has greatly enhanced the academic facilities available for student-athletes, opened in August 2009.

While the athletic department takes its role in the educational process very seriously, Colorado State's mission to provide a world-class education is at the core of academic success. U.S. News and World Report ranked Colorado State in its top tier in its annual "America's Best Colleges" report. The university offers 72 majors and 27 minors, and many of its programs are ranked among the best in the country.

Colorado State continues to push forward in its mission to provide the best possible education. Construction recently was completed on the state-of-the-art University Center for the Arts and Computer Science buildings and the Rockwell Hall expansion at the College of Business.

Fort Collins Facts

- No. 1 pl ace to live in the U.S. (Money magazine, August 2006).
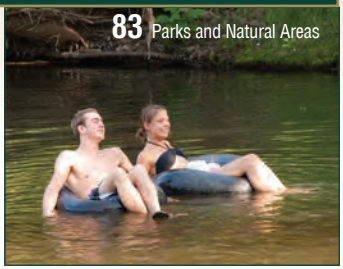
- No. 1 Best Place to Live and Work for Young Professionals (pop. 100,000-200,000), Next Generation Consulting, March 2009.
- No. 2 i n Forbes magazine's best United States cities for business and careers (March 2009); Denver ranked 14th and Boulder was 20th among five Colorado locations in the publication's top 40.
- One of the Top 20 Places to Thrive (Best Boomer Towns, February 2009).
- Ranked fifth-most educated city in America (Forbes magazine, November 2008).
- One of the Best Places to Raise Your Kids (BusinessWeek, November 2008).
- Gol d level Bicycle Friendly Community (League of American Bicyclists, 2013).

One of Colorado's most vibrant cities, Fort Collins is the best place in the country to live, work and play. Tucked against the foothills of the Rocky Mountains, the city is within an hour's drive of Denver, the nation's 25th-largest metro area.



Fort Collins' 145,000 residents bask in 300 days of sunshine per year — more than San Diego and Florida — and the city boasts a lively arts and cultural scene, and is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts with over 300 miles of bike paths and trails, and easy access to the scenic Poudre River and majestic Rocky Mountain National Park.

145,000 Approximate population of Fort Collins

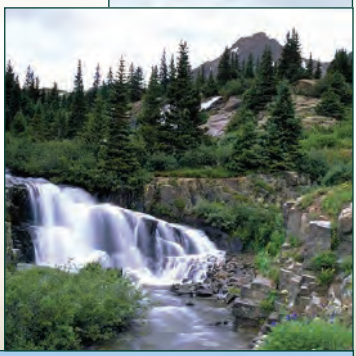
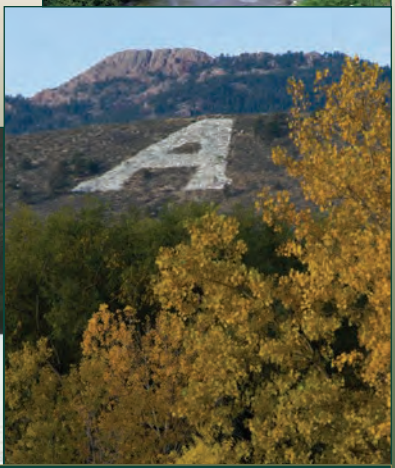
Old Town Fort Collins, the inspiration for Disneyland's Mainstreet USA

Since its founding as a military fort in 1864, Fort Collins has anchored northern Colorado's rich heritage of academic, business and recreational pursuits. Hiking, mountain biking, kayaking, river rafting and rock climbing are just a few popular outdoor pursuits for students and residents.

The city maintains more than 600 acres of parks, 30,000 acres of natural areas, 29 miles of off-street trails for hiking and biking, and four golf courses. Old Town, the heart of Fort Collins, offers a one-of-a-kind shopping experience and more than 80 restaurants, in addition to a vibrant night life and multiple cultural arts centers.





Horsetooth Reservoir, located just a few miles west of CSU's main campus, offers great outdoors opportunities including camping, boating, fishing, swimming, hiking, climbing and more.

The Denver Metro Area, with a population of 2.4 million, is less than an hour's drive from Fort Collins. Three of its teams have competed for their respective world championships in the past 15 years, and Colorado fans are among the most passionate in the nation. Denver has all the features of any big city, including great shopping and nightlife on the 16th Street Mall (Denver Pavilions, right), a one-of-a-kind concert venue in Red Rocks Amphitheatre (below, right), an adrenaline-inducing amusement park in Elitch Gardens (below, left), and the world's 10th-busiest airport, Denver International.

Nicknamed the Mile High City because it is one mile above sea level, downtown Denver is home to the Colorado state capitol building, the 13th step of which is exactly one mile in elevation.

Locker Room

CSU's locker room was renovated in October 2012. It features personal lockers for each player, couches and a TV for relaxation and more.

Training Room

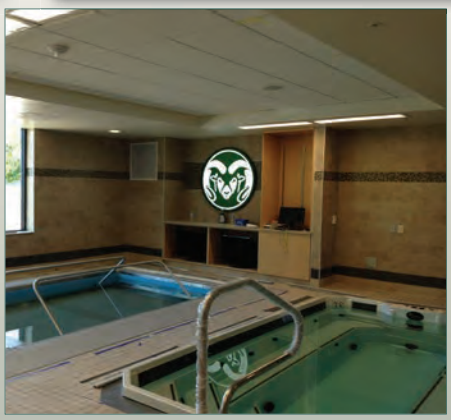
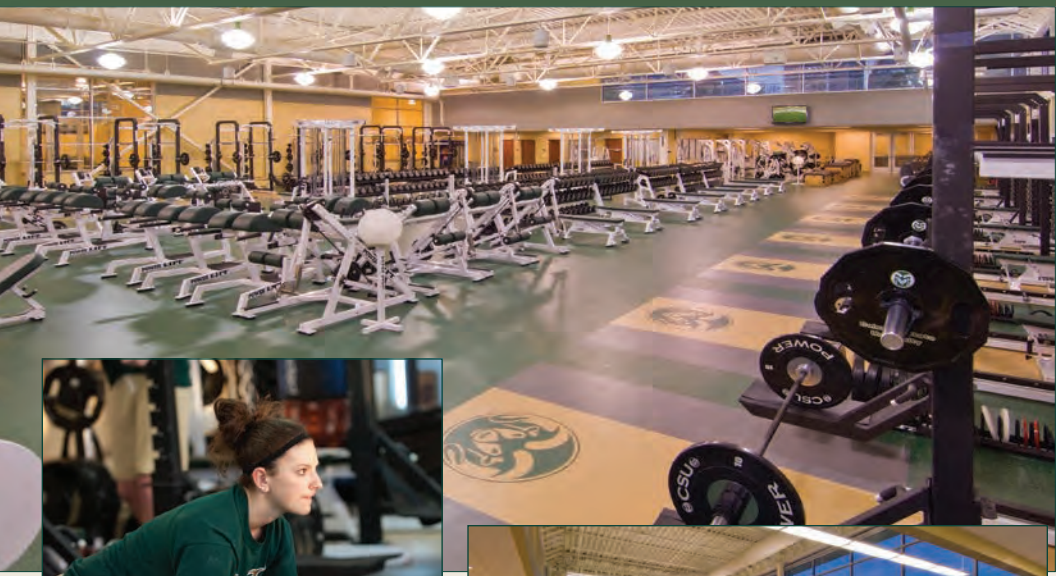
During the summer of 2013, the training room went through a major transformation, doubling in size to help make it one of the finest in the country. It features a multitude of taping and treatment tables, rehabilitation equipment, and hot/cold tubs, including an underwater treadmill, the only of its kind in the state.





Student-athletes at Colorado State are students first, and a quality learning environment is essential to achieving the high standards expected of them. That's why, in 2009, the Anderson Academic Training Center was completed, offering Rams student-athletes a first-class academic facility. As a team, CSU is one of the top academic teams in the nation, holding a team cumulative GPA of 3.28 last season.

Features:

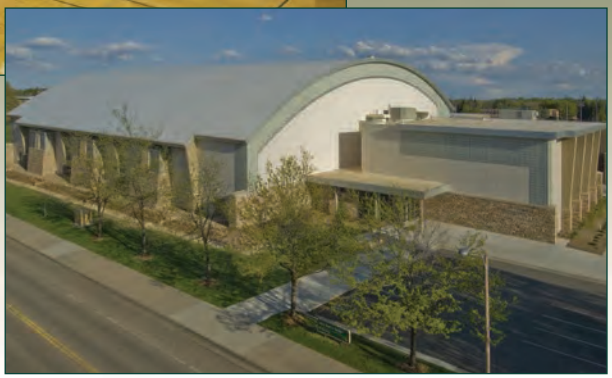
- A computer lab with more than 30 workstations.
- Five private tutorial rooms and large study areas.
- Six full-time academic coordinators to assist student-athletes in their studies

The training portion includes a state-of-the-art weight room and strength and conditioning center, in addition to a nutrition center. One of the newest and most comprehensive in the Mountain West, each team has a sport-specific strength coach to work with them throughout the year..



Also established in 2009 was the Indoor Practice Facility, measuring more than 66,000 square feet. The structure allows the team to practice and train in an additional facility, especially in the spring during individual and small group work.

Features:

- A 70-yard synthetic-turf football field, including one end zone.
- Can accommodate all 16 varsity sports, and includes a four-lane, 70 meter track.
- The large gymnasium can fit two courts.
- The video deck above the courts allows the team to review technique and put it into play immediately

HOMES OF THE RAMS

Colorado State University student-athletes in all sports enjoy some of the finest facilities in the country, including (clockwise from above) Moby Arena, volleyball and men's and women's basketball; Sonny Lubick Field at Hughes Stadium, football; Ram Field, softball; University Tennis Courts, tennis; Jack Christiansen Track, outdoor track & field; Moby Pool, swimming & diving; Harmony Club, men's and women's golf; and Fort Collins Soccer Complex, women's soccer.

Colorado State student-athletes realize they impact others outside of their performance on the court or field. That's why each volleyball player volunteers in some form. Whether it be working a youth camp or reading to elementary students—or something else like volunteering at local animal organizations—the volleyball team regularly engages with the community, knowing they can make a difference to those around them.

JACK GRAHAM

Director of Athletics | 2nd Year at CSU | Colorado State, 75

GRAHAM AT A GLANCE

Education
- Bachelor of U.S. history; Colorado State, '75

Personal
- Played quarterback for CSU from 1973-74
- Drafted by the Miami Dolphins
- Successful 30-year career in the international insurance and reinsurance markets
- Founded ICAT Managers, a leader in catastrophic risk insurance products
- Advisory board member of the National Center for Atmospheric Research
- Married to wife, Ginger Graham

"We expect, at Colorado State University, that the excellence of our athletic programs will mirror that of the excellence that has always been the academic foundation at this great university." -- Jack Graham

Bold New Era. Those three words have come to define the vision, direction and accomplishments of John C. "Jack" Graham's tenure as Director of Athletics at Colorado State University, since his hire on Dec. 1, 2011.

A successful business leader and former Rams quarterback, Graham was chosen by CSU President Tony Frank to lead the institution's athletic programs, and more importantly to apply the vision and drive necessary to produce excellence in every aspect.

"In Jack Graham, we have the perfect combination of dedicated Ram fan, stand-out athlete and experienced business leader with the skills and business acumen to energize and advance our overall athletics program," Frank said upon announcing the hire. "I am excited about the enthusiasm he will generate among our students, coaches, alumni, donors and fans. He brings high standards, high expectations and a passion for winning that is infectious."

Graham immediately went to work reshaping the department, beginning with the hire of Jim McElwain as head football coach on Dec. 13, 2011, from his offensive coordinator position at Alabama, which was on its way to a second national championship victory in a three-year span.

That move provided the first glimpse of what the Bold New Era would mean for Colorado State, and was followed by the high-profile hire of former national coach of the year Larry Eustachy in men's basketball, and the hire of Ryun Williams to lead the women's basketball program.

"We have the same expectations for excellence in our sports program that we have for all areas of the university," Frank added. "With Jack's leadership, I see no reason why CSU athletics cannot and should not compete at the highest level. To get there, we have to dream big, work hard and settle for nothing less than excellence."

CSU President Dr. Anthony Frank (background) introduced Jack Graham as the Rams' 17th Director of Athletics on Dec. 1, 2011

Immediately upon his appointment, Graham also announced he would drive a process to secure approval to build an on-campus football stadium at Colorado State to replace 44-year-old Hughes Stadium, located several miles from the school's Fort Collins campus.

Graham succeeded in leading an ambitious process that by early October 2012 secured the unanimous recommendation of Colorado State's Board of Governors to Dr. Frank to allow the athletics department to begin the fundraising process for the stadium. It was another major achievement in just Graham's 10th month on the job.

More illustrations of Colorado State's Bold New Era came in the form of two significant business deals brokered by Graham and his senior leadership team in November 2012. The first was an announcement that Colorado State's athletic programs were entering into a partnership with Under Armour to provide apparel and footwear beginning in July 2013. The second came four days later when Graham announced a five-year partnership with 105.5 ESPN Radio to be the radio home for the Rams' football and men's and women's basketball games and coaches' shows.

In January 2013, the decision was made by Graham to add the sport of women's soccer for the 2013 season. The addition drew widespread praise for recognizing the popularity of the sport not just in Colorado, but nationwide, and veteran coach Bill Hempen was named the program's first head coach.

Graham also has set forth a clearly-defined set of standards for Colorado State's student-athletes, to go along with his commitment to providing the absolute best student-athlete support. His motto for all Rams is to "Do it All." The three key expectations are to succeed academically and graduate, be people of great character, and to win. Achievement in anything less than all three areas doesn't meet the expectations for a Colorado State student-athlete.

CSU's athletics department supports approximately 400 student-athletes competing in 16 varsity sports.

"Athletics play a critical role at CSU," Graham said at the time of his hire. "Our teams can and should be leaders in defining our university's traditions, and they can be catalysts that unite our students and community. I am honored to return to CSU and believe our success in athletics can and will send a signal about the overall quality of CSU's leadership, our standards and our talent. We are committed to winning while maintaining the highest level of integrity and student success."

Graham played quarterback for the Rams from 1973-74 and graduated from Colorado State in 1975 with a bachelor's degree in U.S. history. He was drafted by the Miami Dolphins. Graham went on to a successful 30-year career in the international insurance and reinsurance markets, where he was known as an innovator and effective leader.

In 1998, Graham founded ICAT Managers, a leader in catastrophic risk insurance products. He sold ICAT, including its Lloyd's of London business, in 2010 and remains on the company's board of directors. Graham also sits on the advisory board of the National Center for Atmospheric Research.

COLORADO STATE UNIVERSITY

Win: Through commitment, discipline and hard work, be an outstanding athlete and teammate who wins.

DO IT ALL

DREAM BIG … WORK HARD
SETTLE FOR NOTHING LESS THAN EXCELLENCE

TOM HILBERT

Head Coach | 17th Year at CSU | Oklahoma, '84

The Colorado State women's volleyball program has become synonymous with consistent winning under the guidance and tutelage of Head Coach Tom Hilbert, who in 2013 begins his 17th season with the Rams and his 25th overall as a collegiate head coach.

With eight Mountain West Coach of the Year awards to his credit in the league's 14-year existence, it is clear why Hilbert's program has risen to the top of the MW and has become a stalwart on the national stage as a perennial top-25 team.

Under Hilbert, who was inducted into the CSU Athletics Hall of Fame as the Hall of Honor recipient in 2006, the Rams have developed into one of the top programs in the nation, qualifying for the NCAA tournament all 16 seasons. Overall, CSU has played in 18 straight tournaments, which ranks seventh nationally among active streaks entering the 2013 season. The stretch also includes five Sweet 16 appearances and 13 first-round wins.

Hilbert ranks 10th among active Division I head coaches (15th all-time) in winning percentage (.767), and 19th in total wins (577). Of those ranked in the top 20, Hilbert has coached the fewest total matches. Through 2012, he owns a career record of 577-176. Just seven active coaches have recorded more than 500 victories while holding a winning percentage above .750, with Hilbert being one of them.

On Nov. 4, 2010, he became the winningest coach in any sport in CSU history, earning a victory over UNLV, his 353rd in Fort Collins. The win surpassed former men's basketball coach Jim Williams' mark of 352 victories. A year prior, Hilbert eclipsed the 500-win mark for his career. At the time, he was one of just two active coaches with more than 500 victories and fewer than 22 years of head coaching experience. Also in 2009, the veteran coach earned his 300th career win at CSU, moving ahead of his predecessor, Rich Feller, who won 299 matches from 1983-96.

The Rams will seek their fifth consecutive MW championship in 2013, earning trophies in 2009, 2010, 2011 and 2012. Just three other teams nationally have currently won their respective conference title in at least four consecutive seasons. In all, Hilbert has orchestrated 10 regular-season MW titles in 14 years, also adding five conference tournament titles in nine opportunities. The 15 total titles is more than all other MW teams — past and present — combined. CSU is 179-32 in MW action under Hilbert, never finishing lower than third. What's more, in 1998, CSU's final season in the WAC, the Rams won the Mountain Division. Of those who have played four seasons at CSU under Hilbert, every single one has won at least two conference titles, with all but three winning three or more.

While at CSU, Hilbert has coached nine players who have earned AVCA All-America selections, and four to Volleyball Magazine nods. Twenty-one additional players under Hilbert have been named All-America honorable mentions by either the AVCA or Volleyball Magazine. Hilbert's players have also earned nine MW Player-of-the-Year trophies in the league's 14-year history, and a total of 64 all-conference selections.

In 2011, when senior Katelyn Steffan and junior Megan Plourde were both named to the AVCA All-America third team, it marked the third time in program history that multiple players were selected in the same season. During 2011, Hilbert was also named the AVCA West Region Coach of the Year, his third regional honor and first since taking over the Rams in 1997. He was recognized at the NCAA Final Four in San Antonio, Texas. Additionally, in 24 years as a head coach, he has earned 13 conference coach-of-the-year awards.

Hilbert has led his teams to 20 or more wins every season since 1992, a span of 21 straight seasons, including the final five at Idaho and first 16 at Colorado State. The 1999 Rams set the school's single-season record for winning percentage after going 30-3 (.909).

He has also turned CSU's home court, Moby Arena, into one of the most hostile in the nation, compiling a 226-28 (.890) all-time home record. The Rams are 25-11 at Moby against ranked opponents, most recently defeating No. 12 Pepperdine (2012) and No. 5 Nebraska (2011). Hilbert has 40 overall wins against ranked teams, including No. 1 UCLA in 2000.

With big wins come big crowds. The CSU faithful continuously rank in the top 15 nationally for annual attendance figures, even breaking into the top 10 on several occasions. In 2011, a MW record 6,750 fans witnessed the Rams come from behind to defeat No. 5 Nebraska. Just two schools had larger single-match crowds in 2011.

Between Sept. 18, 1998 and Nov. 18, 2000, CSU rattled off 44 consecutive home wins, a Moby Arena record. More recently, CSU has strung together streaks of 21 (2007-08) and 16 (2011-12). The Rams haven't lost a home match against a current member of the MW since Nov. 4, 2005, a span of 45 straight contests entering the 2013 season.

HILBERT BY THE NUMBERS

- 577 career victories over 24 seasons
  19th among active coaches
  Of those in the top 20, Hilbert has coached the fewest matches
- 403 victories at CSU
  Winningest coach in any sport in CSU history
- .767 career winning percentage
  10th among active coaches; 15th all-time
- 21 consecutive seasons with at least 20 wins
- 25.19 average wins per season at CSU
- 16 NCAA tournament appearances in 16 seasons in Fort Collins, including five trips to the Sweet 16
  The Rams' streak of 18 straight ranks seventh nationally among active streaks
- 21 conference championships
- 10 AVCA All-America award-winners
- 3 AVCA Region Coach of the Year awards, in addition to 13 conference honors
- 39 wins against top-25 team
- Consistently ranked in the top 25, including as high as No. 3 in 2000
- .890 winning percentage at Moby Arena (226-28)
- Ranked in the top 25 for attendance averages each season, including in the top 10 seven times

CSU has been ranked in the AVCA top-25 poll more frequently than all but 14 Division I teams, with many of those rankings coming under Hilbert. In fact, Hilbert led CSU to its highest-ever ranking, No. 3 in October 2000. On two occasions (2000, 2001), CSU has finished the year ranked in the top 10, and between Sept. 1, 1999 and Sept. 23, 2002, CSU was ranked 51 consecutive weeks.

Away from the court, Hilbert's teams have set the tone academically. During his tenure, two players have earned Academic All-America honors — Angela Knopf in 2000 and 2001 and Dana Cranston in 2012. Additionally, the Rams have earned 76 academic all-conference nods under Hilbert's guidance, including 34 over the past four seasons.

Before coming to CSU, Hilbert accumulated a 174-72 (.707) record at Idaho — which remains the most wins by a coach in Idaho history. He helped the Vandals to the Eastern Division title in 1996 (their first season in the Big West), and in the Big Sky, his teams won either the regular season or the tournament championship each year from 1992-95. In each of those seasons, Hilbert's Vandals played in the NCAA tournament — posting first-round wins in 1993 and 1994 — and Hilbert was named the Big Sky Coach of the Year.

In his first season in Moscow, Idaho went 15-14, a drastic improvement from the Vandals' combined 16-41 mark from the two prior seasons. Just five years later, in 1994, Idaho recorded a program-record 31 victories (31-3).

Hilbert coached the Big Sky's first All-American in Mindy Rice. He also guided Idaho to its first national ranking, the first-ever national ranking by a Big Sky team. In addition to Rice, Hilbert tutored nine AVCA All-Region selections, four Big Sky MVPs and 20 all-conference recipients.

Prior to Idaho, Hilbert spent five seasons as an assistant at his alma mater, Oklahoma, from 1984-88. The Sooners went 115-56 (.673) in Hilbert's five seasons in Norman, including two trips to the NCAA tournament and an appearance in the Elite Eight (1988).

Away from the college game, Hilbert has coached several international trips through Bring It Promotions, including winning the Global Challenge in 2009 in Croatia and coaching a USA Select Team in Argentina in 2005.

A native of Norman, Okla., Hilbert earned his bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing in 1984, and his master's in business administration in 1989, both from OU. In 1993, he received a second master's degree, in sports and recreation management from Idaho.

Hilbert has resided in Fort Collins for 16 years with his daughter, Myles, who will turn 13 in September.

HILBERT'S COACHING PHILOSOPHY

What is your coaching philosophy?
My philosophy in volleyball is you need to play low error and as athletic as possible. If you keep your errors down and you maximize your athleticism in all your hitting positions, you're going to beat a lot of teams, and that's what our goal is. I also have a philosophy that every player needs to try and make improvements and grow in all areas every day. Whether it's citizenship, academics or volleyball, that's an important part of what we do.

What is your favorite thing about coaching at CSU?
The support of the program. If you're a coach of volleyball at CSU, you know you're appreciated, you know the community is into what you're doing, and to me that's the greatest reward; that's what makes the quality of my job so high. There are a lot of places that have great programs and good financial support, but CSU is a good program with good financial support, and has fantastic community support. You really feel appreciated.

What's the biggest selling point when talking to a recruit about Colorado State?
The support that we get here. We're family-first, and we get a lot of support . You feel wanted, and you feel part of something special because of the support here.

What types of people do you aim to develop your players into?
We want to develop them as citizens and community members. We want these players to learn to be good ambassadors of the university and the program; that is important to me. I want them also to learn to bond with each other, and make great friends with this core support group. That will enhance their experience, as well.

What types of opportunities do players have after competing in Fort Collins?
We've had a lot of people play overseas, and have had three U.S. National team members and three Canadian National team members, in addition to countless professional contracts all over the world. What we want to do is prepare our athletes to live their dreams. If their dream is to be a college volleyball player here, we certainly want to give them that experience. Then, after that, if they want to continue to play and expand their game, we want to try and help them do that. We hope that they flourish even past CSU. A lot of players get better from ages 21-25, which is really neat to see.

What is it like to play in Moby Arena?
There's no doubt, it's one of the best venues for volleyball in the United States, hands down. It's a big arena, but it's small and intimate enough that at a volleyball match you feel like there's a lot of people there — and a lot of times at our matches there are. It's the perfect size; it's aesthetically a beautiful place. I really do think it's one of the best places in the country, and it's one of the reasons I love it here so much.

What do you look for in a recruit?
The first thing we ask is, 'Is he kid physical enough to be at or among the best in the Mountain West?' Once they pass that test, we start to look for character elements, like are they a good student? A good teammate? Are they going to be someone who's willing to come in and be part of this family and grow every day? If they have all of those characteristics, we want them.

BROOK COULTER

Associate Head Coach | 2nd Year at CSU | California, '01

Brook Coulter joined the Colorado State women's volleyball coaching staff on Jan. 26, 2012, as associate head coach. Due to her diverse background, she works with all aspects of the volleyball program, especially the outside hitters and first-contact defense. Additionally, she's the team's recruiting coordinator.

By coaching at CSU, Coulter was able to return to her hometown. A 1996 graduate of Rocky Mountain High School in Fort Collins, Colo., Coulter spent her childhood watching CSU volleyball. She attended matches at Moby Arena, and beginning at the age of 14, even kept a three-ring binder full of newspaper clippings about the program.

Coulter spent one season (2011) as an assistant coach at Georgia, training the outside hitters and liberos, as well as coordinating camps, planning freshman transition and working with academics.

Prior to her time in Athens, Coulter was an assistant coach at Denver for four seasons (2007-10). There, she worked with the team's outside hitters and defensive specialists, in addition to many off-the-court aspects of the program. The Pioneers went 77-54 during her tenure, including a program-best 25-7 mark in 2008.

Her coaching career began at Nevada in 2002, where she organized summer camps and maintained a recruiting database. However, she then put coaching on hold to continue her playing career.

She played professionally in Europe from 2002-07, competing for teams in Austria, Spain, Germany and Slovenia. She was also employed by Bring It Promotions, where she directed and organized international tours throughout Slovenia and Eastern Europe.

In college, Coulter was a four-year starter and three-year captain at California. The outside hitter was named to the All-Pac-10 freshman team in 1996 and was a two-time member of the Pac-10 honorable mention squad. Today, she still ranks first all-time in Cal's record book in career service aces (162) and aces in a match (nine). She finished her career ranked sixth in digs (1,121) and seventh in kills (966), and in 1998, her 56 aces ranked fourth nationally. As a senior in 1999, she was coached by long-time CSU Head Coach Rich Feller. Coulter was a two-sport athlete, also competing with the women's basketball team for one season.

Away from the college level, she was an assistant coach for a USA Volleyball Junior A2 team in 2011, and this past summer was the head coach for the USA Future Select National Training Program, working with the top athletes under 13 years of age. In 2009, she was the head coach for USA Volleyball's high performance A3 camp, and the year prior, in 2008, was an assistant on the bronze medal-winning USA Volleyball Open Adult Championship team. She also founded the Green Valley Ranch 12-and-under Starlings Club program. In June 2009, the Starlings captured the bronze medal at the Starlings National Championship in San Diego, Calif. As a student-athlete at Cal, she coached the Golden Bear Volleyball Club.

Coulter completed her bachelor of arts in integrative biology in May 2001 from California and was a physical therapy aide at the Nevada Physical Therapy-Orthopedic and Sports Rehabilitation Clinic upon graduation. Her parents still live in Fort Collins.

MATTHEW BOTSFORD

Assistant Coach | 2nd Year at CSU | Tri-State, '98

Colorado State volleyball Head Coach Tom Hilbert hired Matthew Botsford on April 26, 2012. Now in his second season with the program, he works primarily with CSU's blockers and middle attackers, in addition to being the scouting coordinator.

Botsford, who has 14 years of collegiate assistant coaching experience under his belt, not to mention several stints internationally, both as a coach and player, joined the CSU staff in 2012 after one season as the head coach for the Swedish club team, Lindesberg Volley.

In his first season with Lindesberg, Botsford led the team to its first-ever appearance in the finals of Sweden's top league. There, Lindesberg knocked off the defending champions in the semifinals, before sweeping the championship match to win the Swedish Elite Series. With the title, Lindesberg qualified for the CEV Volleyball Challenge Cup. Botsford coached players from all over the world, including athletes from Poland, America, Ukraine and Sweden.

Botsford has spent more than a decade as an assistant at the Division I level, coaching at several universities, including Notre Dame and Miami.

From 2008-10, Botsford coached three Fighting Irish All-Americans — Jamel Nicholas, Christina Kaelin and Serinity Phillipsf – and dealt with the development of the outside hitters and middle blockers, and the coordination of off-campus recruiting and scouting. During his stint, he also helped sign a pair of top-25 recruiting classes. Notre Dame won the Big East regular-season title in 2009 and advanced to the NCAA tournament.

In four years (2004-07) as an assistant for Miami, Botsford tutored a trio of All-Americans in Val Tipiana, Frannie Savage and Karla Johnson. He also helped recruit Arielle Cook, Miami's first-ever Fab 50 recruit. In 2004, the Hurricanes finished second in the ACC standings.

Prior to 2004, he was an assistant for three seasons (2001-03) at IUPUI, helping lead a number of players to success on the court, including two-time Mid-Continent Conference Player of the Year Rebekah Pallikan. Botsford was also the interim head coach at his alma mater, Tri-State University, for the both the men's and women's teams in 1998, followed by a one-year stint with Indianapolis (1999).

Aside from the college game, Botsford has spent time as a coach with NORCO and Circle City Volleyball Club, and at Prairie Heights High School (Ind.). He also served on the coaching staff of the USA Volleyball Girls Select A1 Team for the 2007 USA Volleyball High Performance Championships in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. He returned to help lead the program in 2008 and 2009, as well.

Botsford played collegiately at Tri-State University (now Trine) from 1995-98, and led the Thunder to its first NAIA/MIVA championship. He was a four-time all-conference and academic all-conference selection, and finished his collegiate career as the school's all-time leader in kills, blocks and digs. In 2006, he was inducted into the Tri-State University Athletics hall of fame.

His playing career continued overseas, as he spent time from 1998-03 on the Midwest Professional Volleyball Association (MPVA) beach volleyball tour. In 2000, he was named the Extreme Volleyball Professionals Rookie of the Year, and a year later was named to the MPVA "Dream Team", which consisted of the top six players on the tour. Botsford won a bronze medal at the 2002 USA Volleyball Open Championships in Dallas, Texas, and was selected to the all-tournament team while competing for the Surf City Volleyball Club. In 2003, he played for the Vingaker Volleyball Club in Sweden, and was one of the team's most prolific players, leading the squad in blocks and hitting percentage throughout the playoffs. He guided Vingaker to the finals of the Swedish Elite Series and a berth in the European CEV Cup for the first time in the team's 30-year history.

He graduated from Tri-State in 1998 with a degree in social studies education. He received his master's degree in business administration from the Indianapolis in 2004.

BRI OLMSTEAD

Director of Operations | 6th Year at CSU | Colorado State, '06

Former Rams standout Bri Olmstead is in her sixth full-time season with the Colorado State coaching staff, and second as the program's director of operations. She is responsible for all off-the-court duties, including scheduling, travel logistics and organizing all of CSU's summer camps.

Olmstead, then known by Bri Frech, first joined the Rams as a player in 2003 after spending her freshman and sophomore years at Salt Lake City Community College. During the 2003 and 2004 seasons, Olmstead was a consistent starter for the Rams, earning All-Mountain West and MW Championships honors while leading the Rams to NCAA bids in both years and a combined 56-9 record. As a junior, CSU advanced to the Sweet 16, and during Olmstead's senior season, the Rams were ranked as high as No. 9 nationally. Olmstead was a rare six-rotation middle blocker because of her exceptional serving and passing ability.

In 2005, Olmstead served as a student-assistant for the Rams while completing her degree. She then played professionally in France for MVS La Rochette during the 2006 season. Her club finished second in the French league that year.

Olmstead returned to Fort Collins in 2007 to pursue a career in coaching. She was the team's video and statistics coordinator during the 2007 season, before joining the sidelines as an assistant coach from 2008-11. As an assistant, her emphasis was on first-contact defense and scouting.

LAUREN VAN ORDEN

Volunteer Assistant Coach | 1st Year at CSU | UCLA, '12

Lauren Van Orden joins the Colorado State volleyball staff as volunteer assistant for the 2013 season. She will assist in all facets of the program while primarily working with the setters and as an on-court coach at practices and matches.

A product of Grandview High School in Aurora, Colo., Van Orden began her collegiate career at San Diego State before playing her final two seasons at UCLA, capped with a national championship in 2011.

In two seasons in Los Angeles, Van Orden averaged 11.37 assists per set, starting 61 of the Bruins' 64 matches. In the national championship match, she posted 53 assists and a career-most 17 digs. She was named to the Lexington Region All-Tournament team, in addition to becoming an All-Pac-12 honorable mention selection. Despite playing just two seasons for UCLA, Van Orden ranks eighth in school history for career assists. In two seasons at San Diego State, she started 54 of 55 matches.

Van Orden spent last season playing professional volleyball in Europe.

In high school, she was a four-year letterwinner and earned numerous accolades, including Colorado Gatorade Player of the Year, Prep Volleyball All-American and Rocky Mountain News Player of the Year. She played in the state championship all four years, winning three titles.

2013 Outlook

All-Mountain West setter Deedra Foss returns to pace the Rams in 2013. After two seasons in the Green & Gold, she ranks ninth in CSU history for career assists, and is expected to move into the top six this season.

Senior Samantha Peters can be a difference-maker for the Rams if she remains healthy. She hit better than .400 this spring, but was sidelined most of last season with a recurring back injury.

One of the top playing venues in the country, the Rams will play 15 matches in front of the Moby faithful in 2013. CSU finished 2012 ranked No. 17 nationally in attendance average, highlighted by 5,641 fans against No. 2 UCLA (seen above). Just three schools had larger single-match figures last year.

Though Tom Hilbert and the Colorado State women's volleyball team are going through one of the most formidable roster transitions in recent memory, the veteran head coach doesn't expect much to change — both from internal expectations and from those externally.

While the Rams were picked to finish second to San Diego State in the annual Mountain West preseason poll — a league they've dominated since its inception, winning 10 regular-season titles in 14 years and more than 85 percent of their all-time matches — Hilbert expects the bull's eye to remain on the Rams' backs.

"Because of our history and tradition, every time we play someone we will still get their 'A' game every time," he said. "They'll probably be salivating even more, knowing they might have a chance to beat us."

The Rams have won four consecutive MW titles, and last year went 21-8 en route to the program's 18th consecutive NCAA tournament appearance, a streak that ranks seventh nationally. However, the team graduated four senior starters which made up the bulk of the offense, defense and leadership. Because of this, some new faces will be forced to step up, led by junior Deedra Foss and senior Samantha Peters, as well as junior Kelsey Snider and sophomores Jaime Colaizzi and Adrianna Culbert.

Foss has the pedigree, earning MW Newcomer of the Year honors in 2011 before becoming an All-MW member a year ago and an All-MW Preseason Team selection this fall. She already ranks ninth in CSU history for career assists, and over the summer earned a silver medal with the USA Volleyball A2 program, coached by the winningest coach in NCAA women's volleyball history, Andy Banachowski.

The others, on the other hand, are more of an unknown commodity.

"Deedra is great," Hilbert said. "She's been great these past two years, but getting to see her play with the A2 program in Dallas, I realized how much of a leader she can be. Jaime is also very good. I see absolutely no issues with her sliding into the libero spot, and allowing that to be a strength of ours."

Filling the holes

While Hilbert feels good about the setter and libero positions, there remains plenty of unanswered questions.

Jaime Colaizzi is expected to transition into the libero role without notice. She averaged 1.99 digs per set as a true freshman in 2012, including 14 digs as libero against Northern Colorado.

As a true freshman, Adrianna Culbert started 25 matches and averaged 2.41 digs per set, which ranks third all-time among CSU freshmen. She will be one of CSU's primary attackers this fall.

"We have to find out who's going to play on the right, who's going to play on the left," he said. "There's been a ton of competition in camp, which always makes better players, but in order for us to be successful this season, we need a couple impact players to emerge."

After a strong fall camp, Hilbert says Culbert will start at some place on the court because of her versatility. Marlee Reynolds, Kaila Thomas and freshman Michelle Lawrence have been battling on the left side, with each showing strengths. Also returning for the Rams is sophomore Kaitlind Bestgen and senior Michelle Smith.

CSU will look to a trio of players in Peters, Snider and redshirt freshman Acacia Andrews to play in the middle, filling the void of graduating seniors Brieon Paige and Megan Plourde — both are now playing professionally in Europe — one of the most recognizable middle-blocking combinations in the nation.

Peters made a strong statement during spring camp, stepping up as a team leader and one of the top players on the squad, unofficially hitting better than .400 in three spring tournaments. She was hampered by an ongoing back injury last season, playing in just 13 matches, but Hilbert has confidence that she will make big things out of her senior season. Additionally, Snider, who moved from the outside to the middle for the upcoming season, showed hints of greatness last year (15 kills vs. No. 2 UCLA), but was inconsistent, averaging 1.76 kills and 2.05 point per set on the season. Over the summer, she traveled to China to compete in the BIP/USA Global Challenge.

New faces

Three incoming freshmen will join the Rams' lineup this fall, including Lawrence, a 6-2 outside hitter and product of Walnut Creek, Calif. Jaliyah Bolden (6-1 middle blocker from Rowlett, Texas) and Cassidy Denny (5-8 defensive specialist from Sacramento, Calif.) round out the freshman class, which earned Prep Volleyball honorable mention status in the website's annual recruiting class rankings. Additionally, the Rams added senior transfer Cayla Broadwater, who played three seasons at Connecticut before coming to CSU to compete in the high jump on CSU's track & field squad, and now joining the volleyball team

Top-notch talent

The Rams will again challenge themselves in 2013, facing four teams that played in last year's NCAA tournament. Early in the season, CSU will travel to national powerhouse Pepperdine to take part in a four-team invitational hosted by the Waves, who were receiving votes in the AVCA Division I Coaches Preseason Top 25 Poll, along with Texas A&M, San Diego State and CSU.

The Rams will play 15 matches at Moby Arena in 2013, widely regarded as one of the toughest venues in the nation, including five non-conference matches. The highlights include CSU's home opener vs. Baylor (Aug. 30), Northern Colorado (Sept. 3), Missouri State (Sept. 11) and SEC power Texas A&M (Sept. 21), which will also be the team's annual Orange Out.

"It's a good non-conference schedule, and I mean that; there are no gimmes," Hilbert said. "Cal Poly has a new coach, Baylor is improving in a good conference, UNC is always tough, Texas A&M will be great and Missouri State might be the best team of them all."

With the additions of San José State and Utah State to the Mountain West, CSU will face an extended conference slate, featuring 20 matches with a home-and-home against each team. The conference schedule will begin with a home match against Border War rival Wyoming (Sept. 18), and will conclude against UNLV (Nov. 29; Senior Night).

"I'd like to win non-conference matches, but I'd really like to win the Mountain West," Hilbert said. "The preseason is about making ourselves as good as we can possibly be by the time we play Wyoming on Sept. 18. That's our target."

San Diego State, which shared the MW title with CSU in 2012, earned nine of the 11 first-place votes in the Junior Kelsey Snider, who has the highest vertical on the team, will transition to the middle in 2012. She averaged 1.76 kills per set in 2012, including 15 kills vs. No. 2 UCLA.

Marlee Reynolds, now a junior, is expected to see increased production from the outside in 2012. She led all Rams with seven kills on .600 hitting in last year's season opener.

Kaitlind Bestgen will continue to provide serving and defensive help for the Rams in 2013.

With greater consistency, sophomore Kaila Thomas could be one of CSU's top attackers this season. She averaged 8.0 kills on .275 hitting during a four-match winning streak last fall.

One of two seniors on the roster, Michelle Smith will supply defensive assistance, and will look to cap her career with a fourth MW title.

league's preseason poll (CSU earned the other two). Past that, there's a lot of competition up top, with anyone having a chance to win the conference.

"There is probably more parity in the league than there's ever been," he said. "The winner will lose at least three games, I think. Our fans are used to seeing us win, which is great — we want to continue to win — but I think the matches will all be closer and more exciting, which is why we need our fans more than ever."

The Rams, who consistently play in front of some of the largest crowds in the country, ranked 17th nationally in attendance last year.

A program of excellence

Since Hilbert arrived in Fort Collins in 1997, he has established Colorado State as a national power. In his time at CSU, he has won 16 conference titles, played in 33 NCAA tournament matches, defeated a No. 1-ranked team and has become the winningest coach in any sport in school history. Nationally, CSU has been ranked more frequently than all but 14 teams in the country, and its 13 All-America selections ranks 17th.

THIS IS THE MOUNTAIN WEST

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 15th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

The Mountain West has marked several achievements over its first 14 years of existence, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches' challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. Additionally, the Mountain West was the first conference to have a member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah's Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With San Diego State's Stephen Strasburg claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of two conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999. In 2011-12, the Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming (elevation 7,220 feet – the highest Division I campus in the nation) contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, home to UNLV and Nevada, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San Jose State add a West coast influence with their locations in Central, Southern and Northern California. The inclusion of the Hawai'i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean.

HISTORY

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San Jose State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members.

ACHIEVEMENT

The MW has produced 793 All-America selections among its 18 sponsored sports (men's swimming was discontinued as a Conference sport following the 2010-11 season) in the last 14 years, including a league-record 83 All-America honorees in 2010-11. A total of 131 MW student-athletes have also earned Academic All-America accolades in that span. The Mountain West has sent at least 25 teams to NCAA postseason events in each of the past 14 years, capturing three team national championships in women's cross country and producing 33 individual national champions in the sports of men's golf, men's cross country, and men's and women's indoor track & field and outdoor track & field.

Mountain West members have participated in 56 bowl games under the league umbrella, including four appearances in BCS games. The MW has earned 68 postseason bids in men's basketball, including 38 NCAA Tournament appearances and two NIT Final Four berths. MW women's basketball has tallied 60 postseason slots, including 32 NCAA bids, five Sweet 16 appearances and one Elite Eight berth since 2000. Wyoming won the MW's first WNIT championship in 2007 with a win over Wisconsin. In women's volleyball, the MW has had 36 NCAA bids with eight Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. Women's soccer has earned 27 NCAA bids since 1999, with two Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. MW men's golf has had at least four representatives in 13 of the last 14 NCAA Golf Regionals, while women's golf has had at least three teams participate in NCAA Regionals 11 of the last 14 years.

2012 Review

Seniors (left to right) Izzy Gaulia, Dana Cranston, Megan Plourde and Brieon Paige became four of seven CSU student-athletes to ever win four conference championships in their careers.

Already the winningest coach in any sport in CSU history, Head Coach Tom Hilbert earned his 400th win at CSU in a victory at Northern Colorado. Afterward, a surprise party was waiting to greet him, including athletic director Jack Graham (above left).

Senior Dana Cranston was named the Mountain West Player of the Year, and just two weeks later, became the 11th Ram to earn AVCA All-America status. She was recognized at a banquet at the NCAA Final Four in Louisville, Ky.

The 2012 season was yet another memorable year for the Colorado State volleyball program, as the Rams won a fourth consecutive Mountain West championship and kept several streaks alive, including 18 consecutive NCAA tournament berths and 20-win seasons.

The Rams began the year sweeping their first three matches at home, but struggled on the road, dropping their first five contests away from Moby Arena, including an 0-3 trip to Wichita, Kan., all against teams ranked or receiving votes in the season's first two weeks.

A fourth straight Mountain West title

CSU would rebound, though, upsetting No. 12 Pepperdine (Sept. 7) at home, and picking up its first road win on national TV at UNLV (Oct. 14). With an experienced and senior-laden team, the Ra s were the heavy favorites to win the conference, but it took a lot of work. Midway through the season, CSU found itself in the mix with three other teams, but not in the driver's seat.

The Rams, though, put together an eight-match winning streak to close the regular season, clinching a share of the MW title on the final night of the season, Senior Night, a 3-1 win over New Mexico.

The Rams have now won four consecutive conference championships, and CSU's four seniors from 2012 finished their careers with four rings, four of seven CSU student-athletes to ever accomplish that feat. In the league's 14-year history, CSU has taken home 10 regular-season crowns, in addition to five tournament championships in nine years.

All-Americans and other hardware

Four players were named to the All-MW squad in 2012, including seniors Dana Cranston, Brieon Paige and Megan Plourde and sophomore Deedra Foss.

Cranston was named the league's Player of the

The Rams had plenty to celebrate in 2012, going 15-1 at Moby Arena. The lone loss was a five-set thriller against No. 2 UCLA, which was played in front of 5,641 fans (fourth in program history)

Four-time AVCA All-West Region selection Megan Plourde became the second Ram to ever record 1,000 career kills and 600 blocks.

Year—the fourth straight year a CSU player has earned the honor— in addition to being named a third-team AVCA All-American—the 11th CSU player to become an All-American. Paige and Plourde were named All-America Honorable Mention by the AVCA. It was Plourde's fourth honor.

Prolific blocker

Plourde concluded her career as one of the most prolific blockers in CSU annals, ranking first in block assists (584), second in total blocks (620) and second in blocks per set (1.47). She ranked eighth in the NCAA in blocks per set in 2012, and throughout her career, became just the second Ram to record at least 1,000 career blocks and 600 blocks.

She was named the AVCA National Player of the Week in September after helping the Rams to an upset over Pepperdine and a regular-season tournament title.

All-American on and off the court

Off the court, Cranston earned national recognition as a Capital One Academic All-American—CSU's second ever—and was a finalist for the prestigious Senior CLASS Award and a conference honoree for the NCAA Woman of the Year.

Moby Magic

Known as one of the most hostile and effective home venues in the country, Moby Arena lived up to its reputation, as the Rams went 15-1 on their home court in 2012. The team's lone loss came to the defending national champion UCLA Bruins, a five-set thriller.

The team's .938 winning percentage was tied for the sixth-best in program history. The 5,641 fans who piled in for the match against No. 2 UCLA was the fourth-largest crowd in CSU volleyball annals, and on the season, CSU ranked 17th in the nation in attendance averages.

Dating back to early 2011, the Rams have now won 24 of their last 25 home matches. Prior to the loss to UCLA, CSU had won 16 in a row, fifth-most in program history.

Setter Deedra Foss led the Mountain West with 11.11 assists per set in conference matches and was named a 2012 All-MW selection. After two seasons at CSU, she ranks ninth in career assists.

Hilbert's memorable win

Head Coach Tom Hilbert, the winningest coach in any sport at CSU, made history on Nov. 13, winning his 400th career match as a Ram.

In 16 seasons, Hilbert holds a 403-103 record at CSU. All-time, he has earned 576 wins, with his winning percentage ranking 15th in NCAA volleyball history.

Continuing a proud tradition

With the MW title, the Rams were the league's automatic qualifier for the NCAA tournament. It marked the 18th consecutive season that CSU has played in the postseason, a streak which ranks seventh nationally.

CSU was paired up against No. 22 Purdue in Tallahassee, Fla., and despite a loss—the Rams' first opening-round loss since 2006—several younger players earned valuable experience, as CSU shifts its focus to continuing its proud tradition of excellence.

CSU opens 2012 season with big win over Virginia

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - No. 25 Colorado State kicked off the 2012 volleyball season in terrific fashion, knocking off the Virginia Cavaliers in three sets (25-18, 25-13, 25-20) Friday night at Moby Arena. The win came in front of a crowd of 3,957 fans, which ranks just outside of the top 10 for all-time home crowds. CSU finished the first set on a strong 9-2 run after Virginia tied it at 16-16. The Rams continued that momentum into the second set where they opened up with a 6-0 lead thanks to great serving from senior Izzy Gaulia. Led by sophomore Kelsey Snider, who had a team-high nine kills for the match, the Rams tallied 15 kills in the second set on .400 hitting. CSU stayed on track in Set 3 with the help of great offense from senior Megan Plourde and sophomore Marlee Reynolds.

Rams pound Pioneers to pick up win over former assistant

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - The Colorado State volleyball team had Saturday afternoon's match vs. Denver circled on its calendar for an entire year, ever since the Rams fell to the Pioneers last September in Denver. CSU wasn't going to let that happen again, however, jumping out to an early 6-0 lead and never trailing in the match, finishing with a clean sweep (25-14, 25-19, 25-21). The Rams were led by seniors Dana Cranston (13k), Megan Plourde (11k, 4b) and Brieon Paige (7k, 3b), but also got plenty of production from underclassmen, including sophomore setter Deedra Foss and sophomore Kelsey Snider. Head Coach Tom Hilbert improved to 38-0 all-time at home against teams from the state of Colorado. The victory came against DU's Head Coach Jesse Mahoney, who was an assistant at CSU for seven seasons (2005-11).

CSU runs past Rhode Island to win Rocky Mountain Invite

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - Colorado State volleyball improved to 3-0 on the season with a sweep over Rhode Island Saturday evening to win the 2012 Rams Volleyball Rocky Mountain Invite. CSU finished undefeated in the four-team tournament. With the win, CSU improved to 66-13 all-time in regular-season home tournaments under Head Coach Tom Hilbert, winning the five most-recent dating back to 2009. With the sweep, CSU also has begun the season winning nine consecutive sets. It marks the second consecutive year the team has done so, and just the third time since 1997. Sophomore setter Deedra Foss was named the tournament MVP, while seniors Dana Cranston and Megan Plourde were also on the all-tournament team.

Wichita State shocks Colorado State

WICHITA, Kan. -- For the first time this season, the No. 24 Colorado State Rams dropped a set--and a match--falling to Wichita State 3-1 (25-12, 20-25, 25-20, 25-19) in front of 2,814 fans at Charles Koch Arena. The loss opens the Shocker Volleyball Classic, hosted by Wichita State. "Wichita State controlled the tempo literally for the entire match," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "We had way too many service errors, and just played very poorly." CSU got out to a slow start out of the gate, falling behind 9-4 on four attack errors, which forced Hilbert to use a timeout. Things never got going in the opening set, however. CSU's 12 points were the fewest in a set since scoring 11 vs. Nebraska on Sept. 2, 2011.

Rams lose heartbreaker to No. 14 Tennessee

WICHITA, Kan. — The Colorado State Rams showed Friday night they can hang with the best in the nation, taking No. 14 Tennessee to five sets at the Shocker Volleyball Classic (22-25, 25-23, 25-27, 25-22, 11-15). However, Head Coach Tom Hilbert said afterward that his team didn't play its best at the times it needed to most, which is what cost the Rams a shot at an upset. "We improved from last night, which is important," Hilbert said. "We did a lot of things better, but we didn't play at our best during the times we needed to." The match was virtually as close as it could be each set, and featured a total of 27 ties and 13 lead changes. Freshman Adrianna Culbert, who was expected to redshirt this season, made her collegiate debut, posting eight kills.

No. 24 CSU falls to BYU

WICHITA, Kan.—The No. 24 Rams were overpowered from start to finish in Set 2, erasing any momentum earned in the opening-set win, which led to a 3-1 BYU win Saturday afternoon at the Shocker Volleyball Classic (25-21, 12-25, 21-25, 16-25). "We played frantically and couldn't get anything going," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "It's disappointing, because we got worse today." Megan Plourde led CSU with 11 kills on .455 hitting. She was the one constant over the weekend, and was named to the all-tournament team. BYU hit .353 on the day in addition to outblocking CSU, 13.0-3.0. The loss marks CSU's first three-match losing streak in four seasons—since Nov. 20-29, 2008.

Rams get back to winning ways, defeat Oklahoma

FORT COLLINS, Colo. — Riding a three-match losing streak, the 24th-ranked Colorado State Rams got just what they needed Sunday afternoon in a four-set victory over the Oklahoma Sooners (25-23, 21-25, 25-19, 25-16). "It feels good to be home after a long weekend," said setter Deedra Foss. "It's always good to play in front of a great home crowd, and hopefully that gets us going in the right direction again." Senior Cranston—who has 10 or more kills in five of the last six matches—led CSU with a career-high 19 kills. It is the most kills by a CSU player since Katelyn Steffan recorded 28 vs. Wyoming on Oct. 8, 2011. "As a whole, the match wasn't the prettiest thing in the world, but we did enough to win against a good team," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said.

Rams rip No. 12 Waves

FORT COLLINS, Colo. — The Colorado State Rams have found their element when playing at Moby Arena. CSU (5-3) improved to 5-0 on the season in front of its home crowd, and extended its home winning streak to 15 matches—fifth-longest in program history—with a 3-0 sweep over No. 12 Pepperdine Friday night (25-22, 25-23, 25-21)."If you would have told me that we were going to sweep Pepperdine, I never would have believed that," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "But I'm glad we did. Dana (Cranston) was really hitting high and hitting well. I'm trying to think of another high-quality match that she has played as well in as this one. I thought she was great. That was a really good match for us. We grew a lot today. In the third game we hit .448 and they hit .364. That's a battle, and we came out on top."

Rams hold off Panthers, extend home winning streak to 15

FORT COLLINS, Colo. — Colorado State's win over No. 12 Pepperdine on Friday night translated over during the first two sets Saturday, as CSU soundly beat FIU by scores of 25-15 and 25-17. However, the Panthers rallied for a 26-24 victory in Set 3 before the Rams were able to squeak by in the fourth set, 33-31. "That last set was a monster," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "I'm not happy with the way our team competed overall today. I thought we were great playing in the first two sets, but we didn't maintain it, and sometimes, when a team pushes back, you've got to figure out a way to respond." The 33 points is the most in a set since the Rams scored 34 vs. San Diego State on Sept. 27, 2007, when sets went to 30 points.

CSU defeats New Mexico State, wins Rams Volleyball Classic

FORT COLLINS, Colo. — Paced by senior Megan Plourde's double-double of 13 kills and 13 blocks, Colorado State came back to beat New Mexico State Sunday afternoon, 3-1 (19-25, 25-20, 25-19, 25-18), and win the 2012 Rams Volleyball Classic. The tournament title is CSU's second of the season, also winning the Rocky Mountain Invite during the season's opening weekend. The Rams have now won six home tournaments in a row, dating back to 2009, and are 69-13 all-time in home regular-season tournaments under Head Coach Tom Hilbert. "Tonight was really good," Hilbert said. "Tonight is who I think we should be all the time. That's a great team that we beat out there. I'm very happy that we got that win."

CSU takes defending national champs to 5th set in front of 5,641 fans

FORT COLLINS, Colo. -- Colorado State went head to head with one of the nation's best Saturday, falling in five tight sets to No. 2 UCLA in front of 5,641 fans at Moby Arena (20-25, 25-22, 21-25, 25-13, 10-15). The attendance figure was the fourth-largest in program history. "We could have won, so we have to take the good things from this and figure out how to not give up long point runs," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "We grow from this kind of match, but it stings because I think we could have won." Leading by scores of 6-3 and 10-9 in the deciding set, UCLA finished the match on a 6-0 run to seal the match. For the Rams, sophomore Kelsey Snider had a career night, tallying 15 kills.

New Mexico comes from behind to beat CSU

Albuquerque, N.M. - In its Mountain West opener, Colorado State fell to the New Mexico Lobos in five sets (25-10, 25-18, 11-25, 20-25, 9-15). The loss marks only the second time that the Rams have failed to win their Mountain West opener, with the only other loss coming in 2006. The Rams were in complete control the first two sets, looking like it would translate to an easy win. However, a lineup change by New Mexico completely turned things around. "They had complete control of the tempo from Set 3 on," said Head Coach Tom Hilbert. "They flipped their rotations which allowed them to keep rallies alive longer. We got impatient, and they simply out-defended us." Megan Plourde led CSU with 13 kills and 11 blocks.

CSU's offense explodes in win over Nevada

FORT COLLINS, Colo. — Thursday night, the Rams found themselves in the same spot they were during their last match, up two sets to none entering the break. Colorado State, though, wasn't going to let a lead slip away again, sweeping the Nevada Wolf Pack at Moby Arena (25-14, 25-13, 25-15). "Before the third set, I said, 'This set can be in our favor right now; let's keep it that way,'" senior Dana Cranston recalled. "I think everyone knew without saying it. We just wanted to get back out there and play the next game." The Rams hit .500 in the opening set and .362 on the night, also posting just nine kills, the fewest since Oct. 20, 2011. The win extends CSU's conference home-opening winning streak to 16 matches, dating back to 1997.

CSU records eight service aces in sweep over San Diego State

FORT COLLINS, Colo. — Playing one of their most complete matches of the season, Colorado State had no trouble Saturday, sweeping the San Diego State Aztecs (25-17, 25-19, 25-18) at Moby Arena. "That was a fascinating match," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "This was an unbelievably statistically good match with regard to the mistakes the teams made. We had nine hitting errors, and five of them came from blocks. That means we hit four unforced hitting errors in 106 attempts. That's really good, as good as any team in the country. To top that off, we had eight service aces and one service error. We gave away 10 points in three sets, which is phenomenal." Dana Cranston had a career-high six aces, the most by a Rams player since Jacque Davisson had seven vs. UNLV on Nov. 1, 2008.

Rams sweep Cowgirls in Border War matchup

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - The CSU Rams continued their momentum in conference play, sweeping the Wyoming Cowgirls (25-22, 25-13, 25-13) in front of a crowd of 3,727 at Moby Arena. "The star of this game was our defense," said Head Coach Tom Hilbert. "Set 1 was a great game; we had more giveaways, but we corrected that. We won the second and third sets with a greater margin because they gave us more points. We were defending and blocking them really well." Senior Megan Plourde led the attack for the Rams with 10 kills on .316 hitting. Deedra Foss recorded her fifth double-double of the year. The win came in front of more than 30 former Ram Legends, each of which were honored on the court in between Sets 2 and 3.

Bulldogs outlast Rams on the road

FRESNO, Calif. -- CSU's road woes continued as the Fresno State Bulldogs outlasted the Rams in five sets at the Save Mart Center (15-25, 25-20, 25-27, 28-26, 12-15). Sets 3 and 4 both went to extra points--with each team earning a win--but in Set 5, Fresno State took a late 11-7 lead, and the Rams couldn't rebound, falling 12-15. The Rams led 3-2 early in the fifth set, but the Bulldogs went on a 4-0 run to make it 6-3. Fresno State did not trail the remainder of the match. "We're just not scoring 15 points before them," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said of the fifth set. "It is what it is; we have to improve." Returning to her hometown, Brieon Paige had a career night, totaling a career-high 20 kills on .471 hitting.

Rams sweep conference-leading Rebels to earn first road win

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — In front of a national television audience, the CSU Rams picked up their first road win of the season in big fashion, sweeping the Mountain West-leading UNLV Rebels (25-22, 25-22, 25-23) at the Cox Pavilion. CSU never trailed by more than two points in the win, hitting .396 in the three-set victory. Seniors Dana Cranston, Brieon Paige and Megan Plourde combined for 35 kills .475 hitting, while sophomore Deedra Foss had 42 assists. "I think we had a good approach to the match," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "Today, I told the team, `You're the underdog, and you need to do something exceptional to win.' They did."

Rams buck Broncos behind season-high hitting

FORT COLLINS, Colo. — Playing in front of a home crowd, the CSU Rams hit a season-best .398 in a three-set sweep over the visiting Boise State Broncos (25-13, 25-23, 25-16). With the win, the Rams move into a first-place tie atop the Mountain West standings, joining UNLV and Fresno State at 5-2. "I thought tonight was a great match for a lot of players," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "I am very pleased. I hope we can continue to play this way." One match after establishing a new season high in hitting (.396 at UNLV on Oct. 14), the Rams again set a new best, recording 45 kills on .398 hitting. The Rams also tied for a season low in errors (eight), including zero in the first set.

Rams cruise past Falcons

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - Just 24 hours after defeating Boise State, CSU again took the court at Moby Arena to face a conference foe. The Rams knocked off the Air Force Falcons in straight sets (25-20, 25-18, 25-15) . Going into the match, CSU knew that Air Force was a much improved team from last year, and the first set proved that. "My hat's off to Matt McShane, because he's making this Air Force program a lot better," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "They had 17 kills in the first set. Anytime you get 17 kills you're going to compete with the team you're playing against." With her first match of the evening, Megan Plourde moved into second all-time in CSU history in career total blocks. "I feel very honored," Plourde said. "I give all the credit to my coaches and my surrounding players.

Service errors damaging in loss to Aztecs

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — CSU hit the road Thursday, and again an opposing gym was an uncomfortable environment for the Rams as CSU fell in four sets to San Diego State (26-24, 20-25, 24-26, 14-25). After gutting out a hard-fought first-set win, CSU dropped the next three to fall. With the loss, CSU and San Diego State are now tied for second place in the Mountain West, a game behind UNLV. "Offensively, we were playing OK," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "To hit .241 in San Diego State's gym, I feel pretty good about. But we not only couldn't stop them, but we gave them a lot of sideouts on serves. Even though we got outhit in the third set, we were right in that set. We were ready to win it, and I thought we played really well. We just lost it at the end, and that was the critical one."

Offense carries Rams to three-set victory over Nevada

RENO, Nev. — CSU made its first-ever trip to Reno Saturday, coming away with a three-set win (25-18, 25-15, 25-16) over the Nevada Wolf Pack. The win is CSU's second road win of the season. Nevada hung close all three sets, but each time, the Rams were able to take over midway through. "I think the biggest thing was we were hanging in there while Nevada was siding out," Head Coach Tom Hilbert. "We had big point runs on them, and all three games, it was when Dri Culbert was serving. We just hung with them, and then separated." In the victory, the Rams' offense was very efficient, hitting. 323 on the night with four players tallying eight kills or more. Setter Deedra Foss had 36 assists while libero Izzy Gaulia totaled 19 digs.

Rams sweep Border War rival in Wyoming

Laramie, Wyo. - Playing in front of an energetic sold-out crowd, full of both Wyoming and CSU fans, the Rams left Laramie with a three-set sweep over the rival Cowgirls (25-19, 25-21, 25-19). With the victory, CSU moved into a tie for first place with San Diego State, and a half-game ahead of UNLV and Fresno State. The victory also marks CSU's second road win in a row. Wyoming played competitively in all three sets, but wasn't able to stop CSU from running away at the end of each set. "It was a hard and emotional win, and we had to fight like crazy, but we did," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "In situations like this, our team in the past has sometimes gotten down, but we didn't tonight. We were in it, competing and never letting them separate."

Rams beat Rebels for third consecutive sweep

FORT COLLINS, Colo. – CSU returned to the comfortable confines of Moby Arena to take on Mountain West foe UNLV in a battle for second place in the conference. The Rams came out on top, defeating the Rebels in straight sets (25-17, 25-16, 25-22). The victory marks the third time in a row that CSU has swept a Mountain West opponent, and moves them into second place in the conference standings. Knowing the importance of the match, Colorado State set the tone early on with its strong defensive play in the back row, particularly from senior libero Izzy Gaulia. "We did a better job defending their outside hitters than we did in Las Vegas," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "I think it was a good match; we played well."

Plourde reaches milestone in win over Fresno State

FORT COLLINS, Colo. – CSU hosted Fresno State in a match that featured two teams vying for the Mountain West title. The Rams came out on top in a highly contested four-set match (23-25, 25-10, 27-25, 25-16), extending their win streak to a season-high four matches. "This match was a battle. I'm proud of our team for coming through and winning this," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "I think this is one of our bigger wins of the year considering the conditions. I'm very proud." With 15 kills and five blocks in the victory, senior Megan Plourde made history, becoming just the third Ram to ever record 1,000 kills and 500 blocks in her career. Plourde now also sits in fourth place in MW history in career blocks, with 595.

Hilbert notches 400th career victory at CSU in win over UNC

GREELEY, Colo. — In a match that tested them both physically and mentally, the CSU Rams walked away with a four-set road win over the Northern Colorado Bears (21-25, 25-22, 28-26, 25-21), earning Head Coach Tom Hilbert his 400th career victory at the university. Hilbert, the school's winningest coach in any sport, is 400-103 over 16 seasons. "How does it feel? It feels like win 26," Hilbert said. "Wins are wins. I'm happy to win 400 games, but I'm just happy to win. This was a tough, fun match tonight. The 400-win deal is about being at the same place at a long time. I'm happy to be at CSU, and I'll be here as long as they'll have me."

Rams dig deep vs. Falcons

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. - Playing in their second of three road matches this week, the CSU Rams came away with an all-important three-set Mountain West victory against Air Force (26-24, 25-22, 25-16). With the win, the Rams moved into a tie with San Diego State for first place in the conference standings. Both teams have two conference matches remaining. It also extended CSU's winning streak to a season-best six matches. "My hat's off to Air Force," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "They competed, they sided out, we couldn't point score on serving very well and they made us worse." As a team, CSU hit .367 and committed just 10 attack errors. Deedra Foss tallied five kills on all five of her attacks while also dishing out 33 assists in the match. In the final set, CSU hit a season-best .591.

Rams dismantle Broncos

BOISE, Idaho — CSU put up impressive numbers on both offense and defense in a 3-0 sweep (25-21, 25-7, 25-23) over Boise State at Bronco Gymnasium. The win is CSU's seven in a row overall—extending its season high—and fifth straight road win after beginning the season 0-5 away from Moby Arena. "We knew we had to play with more energy in order to win," senior outside hitter Dana Cranston said. In a dominant second set, CSU limited Boise State to seven points, the fewest allowed by the Rams since Nov. 1, 2008. A win Friday vs. New Mexico would clinch CSU's fourth straight Mountain West title.

Rams, seniors win fourth consecutive Mountain West title

FORT COLLINS, Colo. - CSU's volleyball team has a lengthy history of success in its storied program. On Friday night, the Rams added to that success, defeating New Mexico (19-25, 25-8, 25-19, 25-21) to earn the Mountain West title. The championship is the Rams' fourth consecutive and 10th overall in the league's 14-year history. With the win, CSU earned the league's automatic bid, and will advance to the NCAA tournament for the 18th consecutive season. On a night that honored CSU's four seniors in front of a lively crowd at Moby Arena, the Rams made sure to send their leaders out on a high note. "To give this group of kids four rings, four championships in a row, that is pretty darn special," Hilbert said of his senior class.

CSU falls to Purdue in NCAA tournament

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — The CSU women's volleyball team's season came to an end Friday, as the Rams bowed out of the NCAA tournament, falling to Purdue, 3-0, (20-25, 18-25, 19-25). During the season, the Rams won their fourth straight Mountain West championship and advanced to the NCAA tournament for an 18th consecutive year—a streak that ranks seventh nationally. "I'm disappointed because this is one of the poorer first-round efforts that we have had since I've coached here," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "It was a tough draw for us, things didn't go our way in the beginning, we didn't really get in good rhythm and we never really got out of it."

Tournament Streaking

Postseason play year in and year out is an expectation at CSU. In fact, one would have to look back to 1994 to find the last time the Rams were not in the NCAA tournament. In all, CSU has been to 24 of the 32 all-time tournaments, including 18 in a row.

Just 12 Division I teams have earned more tournament berths than CSU, and the Rams' stretch of 18 consecutive appearances is the seventh-longest active streak in the country.

Not only does CSU get to the tournament on an annual basis, but the team wins when it gets there. The Rams have been to the regional semifinals (Sweet 16) on nine occasions — most recently in 2009 — and won their opening-round match five consecutive seasons from 2007-11.

Over the years, Moby Arena has been a host site for NCAA tournament matches 11 times, including the 2008 Regional Finals. The Rams have had tremendous success on their home court, going 13-2 in tournament matches at Moby Arena.

Champions on the Court

Since the Mountain West Conference's inception in 1999, the Rams have been stalwarts in the league, winning 10 of the 14 regular-season titles. Additionally, CSU has earned five Mountain West Championships crowns in nine seasons (the tournament ran from 1999-06 and again in 2011).

The 15 total championships is more than all other Mountain West schools combined — past and present.

CSU finished at the top of the regular-season standings again in 2012, earning its fourth consecutive title. CSU's four seniors in 2012 finished their careers with four rings after winning the regular-season each year, in addition to the only MW Championships they competed in. Just three other players have won four regular-season titles in four years.

In 2013, CSU will vye for its fifth consecutive championship, a feat that has been accomplished once before (2000-04). In 14 years with the MW, CSU has won or shared the regular-season or tournament championship all but two seasons.

The program also boasts titles from both the Western Athletic Conference (1988 Mountain Division) and the High Country Athletic Conference (1984, '85), totaling 18 overall conference championships, more than any other sport at CSU.

Other MW notes:

>> The Rams hold an all-time record in MW matches of 179-31 (.854).
>> Dating back to Nov. 4, 2005, a loss to UNLV, CSU has not lost a home match against a current member of the MW.
>> The MW ranked seventh out of 33 in conference RPI in 2012, with five of the nine teams ranking in the top 100.
>> Two MW schools earned NCAA tournament appearances in 2012. At least two teams have played in the postseason each season except 2011, including three teams on five occasions.

2012 Mountain West >> Regular Season (co)

21-8 Overall, 13-3 MW

Losing their Mountain West opener for just the second time ever, the Rams rebounded from a rocky 3-2 start to conference play. Overall, CSU won 10 of its final 11 MW matches, including seven in a row down to close out the year. CSU knocked off New Mexico on the final night of the regular season to be crowned conference champions for the fourth consecutive season. Senior Dana Cranston was named the MW Player of the Year, and three others joined her on the All-MW Team, including fellow seniors Brieon Paige and Megan Plourde. Those three, along with Izzy Gaulia, capped their collegiate careers winning four regular-season conference championships in four seasons.

2011 Mountain West >> Regular Season >> Tournament

24-6 Overall, 12-2 MW

Returning just one senior, CSU exceeded expectations, leading the Mountain West wire to wire and winning its third straight regular-season title. Leading the way was senior Katelyn Steffan, the MW Player of the Year. Entering the MW Championships as the top seed, CSU accomplished two feats that had only been done once before. The Rams became the second No. 1 seed to win the Championships, also becoming the second team to sweep all three matches. Steffan was named the MW Championships MVP. Dana Cranston, Brieon Paige and Megan Plourde each earned post-season honors by the conference, while Deedra Foss was named the MW Newcomer of the Year and Head Coach Tom Hilbert earned his eighth MW Coach of the Year award.

2010 Mountain West >> Regular Season

26-5 Overall, 14-2 MW

Despite the target on the Rams' backs, CSU led the league wire to wire for the second consecutive season en route to its second straight Mountain West title. Danielle Minch was named the league's Player of the Year for the second consecutive season. She was one of four seniors on the roster, three of which were four-year starters. Sophomore Megan Plourde and junior Evan Sanders were also honored by the conference, being named to the All-MW Team.

2009 Mountain West >> Regular Season

25-6 Overall, 15-1 MW

After opening the season 4-3, the CSU volleyball Team hit its stride in early September, winning 19 of 21 matches to close out the regular season. The Team rolled to a 15-1 mark in Mountain West action, claiming the program's seventh MW regular-season championship. Junior Danielle Minch was named MW Player of the Year, while senior Katelin Batten was tabbed the MW's top libero. Senior Tessa Nelson, sophomore Evan Sanders and freshman Megan Plourde each garnered all-MW honors. Head Coach Tom Hilbert was named MW Coach of the Year.

2007 Mountain West >> Regular Season

23-8 Overall, 13-3 MW

The 2007 season saw the Rams earn their sixth MW regular-season championship since 2000. Junior middle blocker Mekana Barnes was named the MW Player of the Year while junior setter Ashley Fornstorm earned all-conference honors as the Setter of the Year. Tonya Mokelki and Jaime Strauss also earned all-conference honors. The Rams went a perfect 14-0 at home including a perfect in MW play.

2006 Mountain West >> Tournament

20-10 Overall, 11-5 MW

The Rams captured their fourth tournament title in eight years as they upset No. 9 Utah in the championship match. In dramatic fashion, the Rams topped the Utes in five games. CSU trailed 20-11 in Game 3 and faced one match point before winning the third game 34-32 and then rolling to the title. Sophomore outside hitter Jaime Strauss was named the MVP of the tournament.

2004 Mountain West >> Regular Season (co) >> Tournament

21-9 Overall, 13-1 MW

In 2004, Colorado State won at least a share of the Mountain West regular-season title for a fifth straight season. CSU won its first five conference matches before falling to No. 18 Utah in four games in Moby. The Rams then rallied to win their final eight league matches, including a three-game sweep over the No. 17 Utes in Salt Lake in front of a national television audience (CSTV). Colorado State went on to become the first host school in league history to win the Mountain West tournament, winning its second straight automatic berth to the NCAA Championship.

2003 Mountain West >> Regular Season >> Tournament

30-5 Overall, 14-0 MW

Colorado State became the first Team in Mountain West history to go through the regular season undefeated, and then became the first Team to ever win both the regular-season and tournament crowns in the same year, winning three matches at San Diego State. Nine of the 14 regular-season matches were three-game sweeps for the Rams, including six straight.

2002 Mountain West >> Regular Season

22-10 Overall, 12-2 MW

2002 was considered by many to be a rebuilding year, but CSU again proved to be the dominant Team in the league, posting a 12-2 record for its third consecutive title. The Rams won their first four matches, then fell in five games to BYU in Moby. Winning their next three matches in four games each, the Rams headed to San Diego State, where they were swept for the first time in 27 league matches -- a feat that had only happened three times in the existence of the Mountain West. CSU rebounded, however, to win its final four matches and again bring home the title.

2001 Mountain West >> Regular Season

29-4 Overall, 13-1 MW

Probably the most dominant Team in Mountain West history, the 2001 Rams posted a 13-1 record and won their first 11 matches -- all in three -game sweeps -- before falling in five games at Utah. They then went on to win the final three matches, again in three-game sweeps. That year, the Rams won 37 straight games, second longest in school history to the 40 straight by the 2000 squad.

2000 Mountain West >> Regular Season

32-5 Overall, 13-1 MW

The 2000 Team started a streak of five straight regular-season titles, posting a 13-1 record with the only blemish being a three-game setback at BYU. The Rams started the conference season with eight three-game sweeps before losing to the Cougars. The Rams then defeated New Mexico in four, swept Air Force, defeated San Diego State in five and swept UNLV to win the title. In the tournament, BYU defeated the Rams in the championship match in Moby, snapping a record 44-match home winning streak.

1999 Mountain West >> Tournament

30-3 Overall, 12-2 MW

The Rams began their dominance in the newly created Mountain West. After a 12-2 mark in the inaugural season of MW play, the Rams dominated the postseason tournament to lock up an NCAA tournament berth. Five players earned all-conference recognition, led by tournament MVP Catie Vagneur.

1998 WAC >> Regular Season (Mountain Division)

24-8 Overall, 12-2 WAC

Colorado State won its first conference title in 13 seasons winning the Mountain Division of the WAC in its final year in that conference. The Rams posted a 12-2 record, dropping only decisions at Rice and at UNLV. CSU won its first seven matches before losing in Houston, then tallied four straight three-game sweeps and a five-game thriller against Wyoming before losing in four to the Rebels. The Rams won their final match to enter the WAC tournament as the No. 1 seed in the Mountain Division.

1985 HCAC
>> Regular Season
26-9 Overall, 11-1 HCAC

In 1985 the Rams posted an 11-1 record in High Country Athletic Conference play to win their second straight title. CSU won its first nine matches before losing at No. 18 BYU, and then swept Wyoming and Utah State for the second conference title in school history.

1984 HCAC
>> Regular Season
26-9 Overall, 12-0 HCAC

The very first conference volleyball title for Colorado State came in 1984 with an undefeated record in High Country Athletic Conference play. The Rams recorded five of their 12 wins with three-game sweeps and an impressive 4-0 record in five-game matches, including the last two at New Mexico State and New Mexico to remain unbeaten.

All-America Hardware

With annual success on the court, the country has taken note of the Colorado State volleyball program, and the type of athletes the school develops. In its history, CSU has produced 13 AVCA All-Americans, which ranks 17th in the nation.

In 2012, senior Dana Cranston was named to the All-America third team, marking the second consecutive season that a player has been honored. In 2011, two players — Megan Plourde and Katelyn Steffan — were selected by the AVCA. It marked just the fourth time that two teammates have been selected during the same season.

In addition to the 13 AVCA All-America selections, CSU has produced four Volleyball Magazine All-Americans, in additon to 21 total honorable mentions. What's more, the Rams have earned 41 AVCA All-Region nods, including at least two each season since 2007. Plourde, who wrapped up her career in 2012, became the first player in program history to be a four-time All-Region selection. A complete list can be found on Page 115.

Dana Cranston | Fort St. John, B.C. | Third Team (2012)

Dana Cranston was the team anchor as a senior, propelling CSU to a fourth consecutive Mountain West title and earning AVCA All-America honors. Cranston ranked second in the MW in kills, points and aces, and ranked first among outside hitters in hitting percentage as a senior. The native of Fort St. John, B.C., was a two-time All-MW selection, including being named the MW Player of the Year in 2012. She also became CSU's second-ever Academic All-American and was one of 10 national Senior CLASS Award finalists. While at CSU, the Rams advanced to four NCAA tournaments, and won four consecutive MW conference championships. After college, Cranston competed professionally with the Canadian National Team and in Europe.

Megan Plourde | Somerset, Wis. | Third Team (2011)

Megan Plourde earned AVCA All-America status in 2011 after being the nation's best blocker, averaging 1.71 blocks per set. The Somerset, Wis., native finished her in CSU history in career ranked first in career block assists and second in total blocks. She ranked third in Mountain West history for total blocks at the conclusion of her career, in addition to being a dynamic and efficient attacker. Plourde became CSU's first-ever four-time All-MW selection and four-time AVCA All-Region recipient. During her career, the Rams won four MW titles, and advanced to the NCAA tournament each season, including the Regional Quarterfinals three times and the Regional Semifinals once. In 2011, she also was a Volleyball Magazine All-American and in September 2012 was named the AVCA National Player of the Week. After college, she competed professionally in several countries in Europe.

Katelyn Steffan | Dickinson, N.D. | Third Team (2011)

Katelyn Steffan took her game to a new level during her senior season, switching to the left side and becoming one of the conference's best attackers, blockers and servers. CSU won both the Mountain West regular-season and tournament championships in 2011, also earning titles in 2009 and 2010 with Steffan on the court. CSU ranked as high as No. 14 in the nation as a senior, and in her four seasons, the Rams advanced to the NCAA tournament each year, including the Regional Semifinals in 2009. The Dickinson, N.D., native earned the 2011 MW Player of the Year and MW tournament MVP awards after leading the conference in kills and points, which also earned her a spot as an AVCA All-American.

Mekana Barnes | Highlands Ranch, Colo. | Third Team (2007)

Mekana Barnes will go down in CSU volleyball history as one of the most dynamic athletes to don a Rams uniform. Barnes was a four-year starter, and became one of the hardest hitters and most-feared middle attackers in the Mountain West. In both 2007 and 2008, she ranked among the top five blockers nationally, and in 2007 was the only player in the country to rank in the top 10 in both blocks and kills per set. During Barnes' playing tenure, CSU qualified for the NCAA tournament all four seasons, and ranked as high as No. 12, in 2008. She was named to the All-MW Team three times and was the 2007 MW Player of the Year, the same year she earned an AVCA All-America nod. She was an AVCA All-America honorable mention in 2008, and in September 2007 was named the AVCA National Player of the Week. Barnes played two seasons as a professional athlete in Puerto Rico, and trained with the U.S. National Team.

Soraya Santos | Vitória, Brazil | Second Team (2001)

Soraya Santos became CSU's first two-year player to earn All-America recognition. After beginning her career at the College of Southern Idaho, Santos transferred to CSU, and as a senior was named a 2001 AVCA All-American. Her lighting-fast arm swing made her one of the best jump servers in school history. She earned All-Mountain West status both years of her career, and set the MW tournament record for aces in a match, with eight vs. Air Force in 2001. Her career .350 hitting percentage ranked second in CSU history at the conclusion of her career. Santos was born in Vitória, Brazil, and won two MW titles and four NCAA tournament matches. This fall, she begins her After her career at CSU, she played professionally in several countries, including Spain, Portugal and France.

Diane Saba | Wheat Ridge, Colo. | First Team (1987)

Diane Saba was a two-time All-HCAC selection and the HCAC Offensive Player of the Year as a senior. That year, 1987, she also earned first-team AVCA All-America honors after recording 195 total blocks — which ranked first in CSU history at the time and is still in CSU's top three. She also finished her career ranked first in solo blocks and aces. The Wheat Ridge, Colo., native advanced to the NCAA tournament each year of her career, and won an HCAC title in 1985. CSU ranked as high as No. 5 nationally during her career. After college, she played two years of professional volleyball, and was inducted into the CSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000.

Sherri Danielson | Evergreen, Colo. | Second Team (1984, '85)

Sherri Danielson earned CSU's first-ever AVCA All-America honor, becoming a second-team selection in 1984. The standout was also honored as a senior, being named to the 1985 AVCA All-America second Team. Additionally, Danielson was a two-time HCAC Player of the Year and three-time All-HCAC selection. She was a member of the U.S. National Team, and was an alternate on the 1988 Olympic squad. Danielson's No. 12 jersey was retired in 1992 and hangs from the rafters in Moby Arena. She finished her career ranked first in CSU history for kills, attacks, hitting percentage and aces. Danielson led the Rams to a pair of HCAC titles and three NCAA tournament appearances during her career. She was inducted into the CSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1988.

CSU IN THE POLLS

The Rams have earned respect nationwide as one of the most consistent programs in NCAA history. In fact, CSU has been ranked in 238 of the AVCA's 446 all-time top-25 polls. Only 14 teams, entering 2013, have been ranked more frequently. What's more, CSU has been ranked in the final AVCA poll 15 of 31 seasons, including four in a row from 2008-11, which also ranks 15th.

CSU's highest-ever ranking was No. 3, in September 2000, shortly after the Rams took down No. 1 UCLA. CSU's best overall finish to a season was No. 6 in 1987. The Rams have been ranked in the top 10 a total of 58 weeks, 19th-most in the NCAA. They have finished the season ranked in the top 10 four times (1984, 1987, 2000 and 2001), and are one of just 23 teams to ever be ranked in the top three.

CSU's record when ranked

- CSU is 409-125 all-time while being ranked, including:
  - 232-28 at home
  - 123-70 on the road
  - 54-27 at a neutral site
- 340-94 while being ranked in the top 20
- 113-23 while being ranked in the top 10
- 54-71 vs. ranked teams (while CSU is also ranked)
  - 34-18 vs. ranked teams at home
  - 12-36 vs. ranked teams on the road
  - 8-17 at a neutral site
- 19-54 when playing a higher-ranked team
- 35-17 when playing a lower-ranked team

CSU against ranked teams overall

- CSU is 68-149 against ranked teams, regardless if the Rams are ranked or not, including:
  - 45-45 at home
  - 13-77 on the road
  - 10-27 at a neutral site
  - 16-72 vs. top-10 teams

Hilbert against ranked teams

- 40-48 overall
  - 25-12 at home
  - 9-28 on the road
  - 6-8 at a neutral site

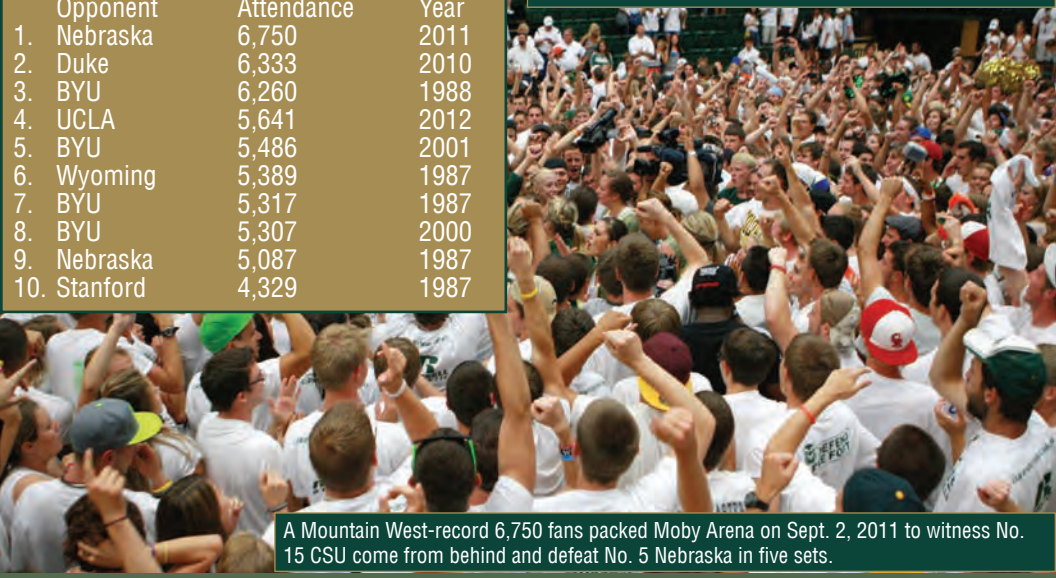
25-12 record against ranked teams under Hilbert



A Mountain West-record 6,750 fans packed Moby Arena on Sept. 2, 2011 to witness No. 15 CSU come from behind and defeat No. 5 Nebraska in five sets.

Head Coach Tom Hilbert doesn't shy away when talking about Moby Arena, the home court of the Colorado State volleyball program, calling it the greatest volleyball venue in America. It is one of the most distinctive and effective home-court playing facilities in the nation. Thanks to its dedicated fans, Moby Arena is home to crowds and winning percentages matched by few programs across the country.

39-0 record under Hilbert against Colorado's four other Division I opponents

PLAYERS IN THE PROS

Colorado State has a history of not only developing outstanding players in Fort Collins, but for many, that extends to a professional career in volleyball. Three members of the Class of 2012 are currently playing overseas. Additionally, 2001 graduate Soraya Santos begins her 12th season of professional ball this fall, the longest-tenured athlete in program history.

"We've helped give these players the opportunity to further their careers on a professional stage, which is really fun for me," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "It's a big part of their lives and a time they'll cherish, and for some people, like Soraya, it's their career and their life. I'm proud that we've had so many players play professionally, and I think that speaks to the development we provide at Colorado State. I even like to get over there and share it with them when I can."

* This list is as comprehensive as CSU currently has. It is still being updated with years and verified for accuracy.

Not only is CSU one of the nation's leaders on the court, but the Rams also get it done in the classroom. In 2012, Dana Cranston became the program's third-ever Academic All-American. During the 2012-13 school year, the Rams earned a 3.28 combined GPA, and a program-record six student-athletes earned Mountain West Scholar-Athlete status, given to those with a 3.5 cumulative GPA or higher. The figure was the second-most selections among MW volleyball programs. Since 1987, a total of 99 student-athletes have earned all-conference recognition for their academic success, including 34 over the past four seasons.

Sherri Danielson is the only Rams volleyball player to ever wear the No. 12 uniform. The two-time AVCA All-American's number was retired in 1992, and now hangs from the rafters above Moby Arena.

RAMS ON TELEVISION

In 2011, eight of CSU's matches were televised, including six nationally on either The Mtn. or CBS Sports Network. However, the program took a hit when The Mtn. – MountainWest Sports Network – went dark in May 2012.

With that said, this season fans can watch the Rams more frequently than ever thanks to the newly formed Mountain West Network. Established in 2013, the MWN will allow CSU volleyball fans to live stream every home match, in addition to all conference road matches. The service is free of charge, and links can be found on the schedule page on www.CSURams.com. For home matches, the stream is a high-quality broadcast, featuring multiple camera angles, instant replay and broadcasters.

GameTracker statistics are also available for nearly all CSU volleyball matches, both home and away.

RAMS ON THE RADIO

Rams volleyball can be heard not only locally, but worldwide on the Nelligan Sports Colorado State Sports Network. Every home match — and select road and all postseason matches — are broadcast on KCSU (90.5 FM locally). For those not in the area, contests can be streamed online at www.KCSUfm.com.

RAMS ON THE WEB

All the latest news, scores and stats for Colorado State athletics can be found on CSU athletics' official website, www.CSURams.com.

Fans can also get an inside look into Rams volleyball as CSU continually expands its coverage through the use of new media. By logging onto www.ramvolleyball.colostate.edu, fans can instantly access exclusive video content, facilities tours and more.

RAMS IN THE SOCIAL REALM

CSU's award-winning social media accounts allow fans an even deeper look inside the program, including breaking news, behind-the-scenes content and the opportunity to win prizes. In May 2013, CSU volleyball was recognized as the 2012-13 AVCA Grant Burger Media Award recipient for its exceptional social media use. The award annually recognizes a person or organization who best spreads the awareness of the sport of volleyball.

Followers of CSU volleyball have many avenues to keep up with the Rams on social media, including Twitter, Facebook, YouTube, Instagram and more. We encourage you to follow/like these accounts to stay in the know regarding the program.

For live, in-game updates for all 16 of CSU's Division I sports, follow @CSURamsGameday on Twitter. The account will provide up-to-date scores and insight for athletic events.

When tweeting about the CSU volleyball program you are encouraged to primarily use the hashtag: #PointRams. One of the many long-standing traditions is seen after every CSU point. The PA announcer will announce, 'Point' while the crowd will emphatically shout, 'Rams!'

Additionally, the team will still use the hashtag #CSUvb regularly.

WELCOME! The Colorado State athletic media relations office genuinely appreciates your coverage of CSU volleyball, and looks forward to each and every time it can welcome you to Fort Collins. Members of the office, including volleyball contact Nic Hallisey, director Paul Kirk, assistant directors Danielle Marshall and Danny Mattie, media relations assistant Stuart Buchanan, as well as the team of student-assistants, are available to assist with your coverage. The office is happy to help you however it can. We encourage you to familiarize yourself with the policies relevant to your coverage of the volleybal program, as outlined on this page and the next.

Please feel free to contact Nic Hallisey via phone or email with questions regarding the media policy.

GENERAL POLICIES

•Al l interviews with any member of the volleyball program, including Head Coach Tom Hilbert, the coaching staff and student-athletes must be coordinated through Nic Hallisey in the athletic media relations office.

•Me mbers of the media are strictly prohibited from approaching any coach, staff member or student-athlete by any means, including text messages, email, phone calls (cell, office or home) or social media, such as Facebook and Twitter, without first approaching the athletic media relations office.

•Re garding unique subject matter, such as human-interest angles, members of the media are welcome to approach the media relations office at least 24 hours in advance with requests to interview any member of the program. Approved requests will be granted.

INTERVIEW GUIDELINES

•Inte rviews, either in person or via telephone, with members of Colorado State's volleyball coaching staff and student-athletes must be coordinated through media relations assistant Nic Hallisey.

•Me dia are asked not to request an individual's personal contact information, including email and cell number, but rather to contact Nic Hallisey.

•Stude nt-athletes and coaches are available for interviews at the conclusion of daily practice sessions. Student-athlete interviews will not conflict with classes, meetings, medical treatment or practice times.

•Inte rviews are not permitted in the locker room or training room. Interviews will not be granted on match days until following the contest.

• Telephone interviews should be requested at least 24 hours in advance and coordinated through Nic Hallisey. All interviews will be processed on an availability basis involving the requested interviewee.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

•Si ngle-match credentials must be requested through Nic Hallisey in writing at least three days in advance of a match. Approved requests will be mailed or can be picked up in the media relations office or at the match. On days of matches, credentials can be obtained just outside the west side of the Moby Arena court. Media members are asked to enter through the McGraw Athletic Center doors (just east of the Moby Arena parking lot) and follow the ramp on the right down to the court. At the bottom of the ramp, a table will be set up with credentials.

PARKING

•Me dia parking is available at Moby Arena. Please contact the CSU media relations office to request a Moby Arena parking pass.
•Ac cess to the parking lot will require an "A" permit from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays. A limited number of single-day passes are available through the media relations office. Annual permits can be purchased through the Office of Parking Management website: www.colostate.edu/depts/parking.

PRACTICE GUIDELINES

•Al l Colorado State volleyball practices are open to the media and public, unless otherwise noted.
•Duri ng the season, practice will generally run from 12:30-3 p.m. during the week, except on match and travel days. Please note, practice times are subject to change on short or no notice. At times, practice will end early, so please plan to arrive early. Practice will usually take place in Moby Arena, but contact Nic Hallisey for the most updated schedule.
•Al l interviews must take place after the conclusion of practice. If this is an issue, contact Nic Hallisey, and the media relations staff will try and accommodate your schedule. Student-athlete interviews will not conflict with classes, meetings, medical treatment or practice times.
•Al l media should remain on the sidelines, standing a safe distance from the boundary to prevent collisions. Members of the general public attending practice are asked to sit in Moby Arena seating.

GAMEDAY

•Ne ar the end of each home match, the media relations staff will ask those on hand representing the media who they wish to speak with. Approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of a match, Head Coach Tom Hilbert and the selected student-athletes will be brought to the Coors Auditorium, located in the McGraw Athletic Center, and will be available for questions.
•No s tudent-athlete or coach can appear on a live postgame television or radio interview without permission obtained prior to the match from Nic Hallisey.

GAMEDAY SERVICES

• A pre-match meal is served 90 minutes prior to first serve in the team room. In-game services include live online statistics, box scores following each set and notes, transcribed quotes and statistics following the conclusion of the match.
•The media room, which is located just west of the court at the bottom of the ramp connecting Moby Arena and the McGraw Athletic Center, will be open at least two hours prior to the start of a match, and will provide updated notes on both teams, statistics and other information.
•Moby Arena offers complimentary wireless Internet access. Check the media room for access information.

ROAD MATCHES

•W e appreciate your coverage, and if you would like to cover the Rams in person during a road match, please notify Nic Hallisey at least seven days in advance to provide ample time to request a credential from the opposing team.
•If y ou would like to talk to Head Coach Tom Hilbert after the conclusion of a road match via telephone, please notify Nic Hallisey prior to the start of the match. After the match, a member of the media relations staff will call you so you can talk with Coach Hilbert. Student-athletes will try to be made available, as well, if requested.

REPORTING OF INJURIES

• At a ll times throughout the calendar year, Head Coach Tom Hilbert will serve as the sole source for injury information. All questions related to injuries should be directed to Hilbert, and not to any other member of the program, including athletic trainers, doctors, the injured student-athlete or her teammates.

CSURAMS.COM

• The official website of Colorado State athletics is www.CSURams.com, featuring the latest news, information, statistics and rosters for all of the Rams' 16 athletic programs.

VOLLEYBALL EMAIL LIST

•T o receive email updates on the Rams, email Assistant Director of Media Relations Nic Hallisey at nic.hallisey@colostate.edu with a message stating that you would like to be added to the distribution list.

WEEKLY RELEASES

• Weekly news releases are available at least 48 hours prior to each match (except on days with back-to-back matches) on the school's official website, CSURams.com. News releases also will be emailed to media outlets upon request.
